

Introduction to Medical Terminology

Understand the basics of medical terminology in this practical course!

Reinforce learning with tools like flashcards. Practice what you've learned with fun games such as word-finds and matching. Challenge yourself and test your knowledge with various interactive quizzes. Stuck on pronunciation? Use the CD provided with the textbook to learn how to say those tricky medical terms.

- For Beginners – no medical knowledge necessary
- Online interactive lessons and games
- Colorful diagrams help students to learn concepts
- Listen to pronunciation of medical terms using the CD provided with the required text
- Self-grading quizzes with immediate feedback

Sample this Medical Terminology course at:

www.highschoollearning.com

High School
eLearning, LLC.

Fax: 1-866-926-9847

Medical Terminology Course Outline

- Basic Word Structure
- Basic Body Structure
- Suffixes and Prefixes
- Common Suffixes
- Common Prefixes
- Body Organization
- The Skin and Related Structures
- The Skeletal System
- Muscular System
- Nervous System
- Eyes and Ears
- Digestive Systems
- Cardiovascular System
- Blood
- Lymphatic and Immune System
- Respiratory System
- Urinary System
- Male and Female Reproductive System
- Endocrine System

$99 1 year online access

Student Requirements

No experience needed

Course Requirements

Windows XP or Mac OS

Internet Access

Printer Recommended

Text

(purchased separately at our Online Bookstore $52.75 plus shipping)

Illustrated Guide to Medical Terminology by: Juanita J. Davies

*Warning: The required textbook contains anatomical images of the human body.